

What Big Leaguers Have To Say About John Mallee

Dan Uggla

Only Second Baseman in History to have 30 HR in 4 consecutive yrs.
2 time NL All Star 06' and 08'
Marlins All Time HR Leader 2006 Sporting News Rookie of the Year

"Big-time impact (on me). With how much he looks at film and my at-bats against guys I'm supposed to be facing that day, he gives me a plan on how to attack them and it really helps out. He'll tell you what to look for and how to react, and you're going to get him on this pitch. You've already conquered it in your head."

Chris Coghlan

2009 NL Rookie of the Year

"John Mallee has been a big influence for me. He taught me things about my swing that nobody else had pointed out. He has helped me with my approach as well as with driving the ball."

Gaby Sanchez

2010 NL Major League All Star

"John Mallee is a great hitting instructor and has helped me become a major league All Star." When my swing or approach got away from me he was always able to bring me back. He gets it."

Jose Altuve

2014 AL Batting Champion .341 BA

"I had three years in the big leagues and had a little success, and why change at this point, but I changed it, and it's a big difference. I give [Mallee] credit. "He's the best hitting coach I've ever worked with."

Giancarlo Stanton

4 Years MLB / MLB's premier power hitter

"John has been a huge influence on me. I signed at 17 and he helped build my swing and approach into what it is today. He takes your strengths as a hitter and makes them more efficient. He understands the mental game and helped me prepare on a daily basis with my swing mechanics and my approach against that nights pitcher. "
